

Commitment of observers, agents and media representatives to abide by the Code of Conduct

All observers and agents accredited by HNEC should:

- 1- Adhere to all regulations and decisions issued by HNEC, the state's decisions, and the international code of conduct.
- 2- Respect the rights of voters and candidates when expressing their views freely and participation in the elections.
- 3- Respect the laws and the authorities of the officials of the electoral process, and to maintain public order, including the consideration of the culture and customs of the host country and adherence to the highest degree of professionalism at all times, even in the times of comfort.
- 4- Not interfere with the electoral process or disrupt it in any way.
- 5- Commit to absolute neutrality at all times and not to influence voters, candidates or officials, and be accurate with judgments and drawing conclusions from factual evidences that can be substantiated.
- 6- Not perform any kind of electoral campaigning.
- 7- Not post, carry or display any political symbols or colours of a partisan nature or a specific candidate.
- 8- Refrain from attempting to provide instructions or information for those involved in the electoral process or to explain the current law, and to refrain from attempting to resolve disputes.
- 9- Display the accreditation card in a visible manner when observing the electoral process.
- 10- Not take photos of any materials without prior permission, and should not take photos that might affect the confidentiality and integrity of the process.
- 11- Report any violations or abuses that would undermine the electoral process (observers and agents only).

With this, I commit to respect and adhere to the terms as stipulated in this document.
